A grid of participant icons in a Google Meet interface. The icons are colored circles with letters or small portraits. Visible letters include P, K, S, B, R, S, and P. There are also small circular icons with a globe symbol.

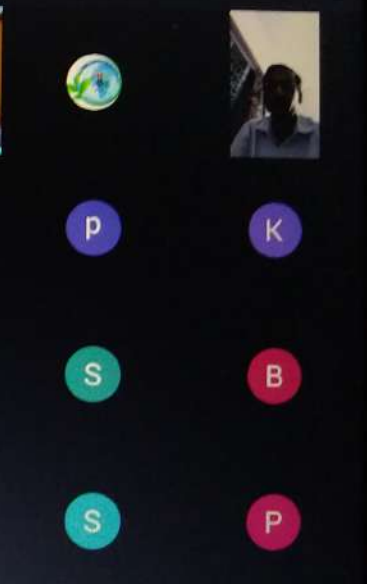

Indian subcontinent is the 2nd largest rice producer and exporter in the world.

Before Green Revolution, there were 42,000 varieties of rice in India, now only 20% is existing.

Our State West Bengal is called "The Rice Bowl of India".

Upto 1965, in WB, there were 4,800 varieties of rice, now we have only 200 varieties.

Don't forget that Basmati is our rice variety, not for them who claimed Texmati from Texas or Calmati by California.

Participant icons and avatars including a globe icon, a person icon, and several circular icons with letters (P, K, S, B, S, P).
